LONDON—Ever since I began to have an interest in politics, I have been an ardent supporter of Zionism. Those of us here in Britain to support the Zionist experiment have always been grateful for the sympathy and financial support which has flowed in this generous measure from the United States. It must be admitted, however, that British Zionists have been considerably embarrassed in recent weeks by certain activities in Washington.

CHURCHILL
First of all, there was President Truman's letter to Prime Minister Attlee the gist of which was permitted to leak out in Washington. Then there was the unfortunate affair of Mr. Charles Ross' statement at a press conference that he had just received from Mr. Attlee in answer to the President's demarche.

There are people in Washington who believe that the British do not wish for American penetration into the Middle East. This is a complete delusion. The British Government would like to encourage American interest in the Middle East on the basis that we should have an extra friend in a difficult part of the world. Both the last Coalition Government and the present Labour Government are genuinely convinced that no solution is possible in the Palestine question without the full and active cooperation of the United States.

If America wishes to help build a real home for the Jews in Palestine, she must be prepared to shoulder some of the responsibility.

Decides to Quit Frantic Efforts Made To Prevent de Gaulle Resigning Presidency

PARIS, Nov. 16.—(AP)—Gen. de Gaulle's office announced today he had decided to resign as interim president of France because of a deadlock with Communists over formation of a government, but frantic negotiations in the capital indicated a last-minute effort was being made to prevent the general's retirement.

H. A. Mackie, KC, Noted Lawyer, Dies: 67 Years

Cloudy weather, light snow and sub-zero weather continued in Edmonton Friday but it seemed to clear up a bit in the afternoon which swept the city Thursday.

The forecast for Friday and continuing through the weekend is for a night low of 13 below, and the high for Saturday 1 above.

During the night the winds which reached 16 to 20 miles an hour yesterday dropped almost completely and the mercury slid down to 12 below zero.

Japanese Bands Stage Food Riots
TOKYO, Nov. 16.—(AP)—Approximately 2,500 hungry residents of Hokkaido, northernmost Japanese home island, seized food from farmers, storekeepers and millers yesterday. The rioters said they were angry because of the food shortage.

The food rioters split into small bands for their raids, the news agency said. Mobs of Shigeru and Akira districts paid for the food they seized in a 1,000-man foraging raid Nov. 13, similar raids by groups totaling 1,300 men and 400 trucks, the news agency said.

More than 19,000 pounds of milked foods were seized. Sixty policemen have been assigned to guard the victims, and civilians joined to form a volunteer defense corps.

The rioting was the first reported for many weeks, but government spokesmen here are quietly concerned over the possibility of violence in the foodless, fuelless winter ahead.

Urges Parley Mitchell Says Union Proposal Is "Reasonable"
OTTAWA, Nov. 16.—(CP)—Labour Minister Mitchell told the Commons today he considered the latest union proposals in the strike at Ford Motor Company of Canada in Windsor, Ont., to be "fair and reasonable," and urged a company union conference "at the earliest possible moment in order that work might be resumed."

In concluding his statement Mr. Mitchell said: "I would put it this way: The company and the union are about to shake hands but they haven't reached out yet."

"I FEEL SURE," he said, "that I am voicing the views of every member of the House of Commons. Both company and union have given evidence in the last few days of accepting a basis of reason and the ability to give and take, 'head' to sound contractual relations."

"I don't want any publicity," Mrs. Harry Burgess, 10227 150 street, said today, and nervous after her daring rescue of little Dolly Evans from her burning home on Thursday, protested Friday morning when queried about the fire. "I only hope that someone will do something for the family, who lost everything they have in the fire," she said.

Mrs. Burgess' efforts, however, proved in vain as little Dolly died in hospital Friday morning. The Evans home, at 1046 149 street, was a total loss.

GONNY STODART, 16-year-old neighbor of the Burgess and the Evans, was the first to notice the smoke pouring from the little house, according to Mrs. Burgess. He notified his aged grandmother, who in turn called to Mrs. Burgess.

When she saw the smoking at the house, Mrs. Burgess said, "I disconnected the machine at once and threw my husband's jacket over my shoulders and ran across the lane as quick as I could."

Dead are: Donna Evans, 2 years old; Dolly Evans, 3 years old.

Donna died in the fire, while Dolly, taken to the General Hospital, died at 3:10 a.m. Friday.

(dangling, to notify an ambulance and Mrs. Arthur Glinher, near Kingsway. Slightly hurt, he was wearing the outdoor clothes he had been using on his week-long hunting expedition in the Wildwood area. He had no idea of the movements of his face, covered with a growth of beard.

NIGHT BEFORE Last I slept on the trail of a mouse I saw, he recounted. "All day yesterday I was busy with the mouse. Then last night, after dark, I got the news. How they were found. I don't know, it's beyond me, and there was no way of knowing where they were.

"I guess the people at Wildwood who received the telegram from Mr. Glinher, hunted the whole district until they found me. I got the word from a man who operates a truck at Wildwood.

"I COULDN'T BELIEVE IT at first. It just didn't seem possible. Earlier in the week I'd got word from Art that the wife and kids were doing well. Then this happened.

"When I saw the telegram my first thought was that it was the Glinher kids who'd been hurt. Then I saw it was my family. 'I came home in a taxi right away. I guess about midnight. I saw it seemed more like we were just crawling.

"I took the hospital and saw my wife. Then I saw the baby. Her seeing her I was told that she and the kids were all right. 'She may have known me but I would never have known her.' Mr. Evans, who lives in the day and district for the enjoyment he and his wife, Klumpner, entertained unit have provided for retirement, said he went to the house of his father, Mr. Evans, after leaving the hospital.

"I couldn't believe that either," he said.

Stunned by the blow, he could think of little else, what he had caused the blaze.

The fire broke out just before 2:30 a.m. A pump and ladder and a combination truck arrived from fire hall 13 and a fire engine.

MR. TURCOTTE admitted no evidence had been added to the case. He said that he had no knowledge of the murder and it had not been established he was near the scene of it.

The defence at the moment is not offering any evidence," said Mr. Turcotte. Mr. Goss submitted evidence had been added to show the death of Plank's with his hands and clothes blood-stained. The defence is not offering any evidence.

"All that is required of this court is that he admit a prima facie case has been made. I am satisfied that this has been done," said the judge.

A PACKED COURT room earlier heard a 34-year-old young German, who had spent some months in Medicine Hat camp, testified that the day of Plank's death he had been playing with some of the boys in the recreation hall.

"Some of the boys were going to be hanged," he said.

Previously, he had seen Christian Scott, prisoner sentenced to hang, to overthrow the camp leadership, under the protection of a Canadian officer who had "gone over to the wire" for assistance.

"AT THE HEAD barracks (while camp) in the recreation hall, he heard some one inside affirming his belief that the boys were going to be hanged.

"A staff sergeant-major went inside and came back with a boy and him on the head with a bolt 18 inches long. The man was thrown down the steps into the crowd.

"Some dragged him to the recreation hall. The man was shouting, 'Help, help, I am innocent.'

"JUST BEFORE THIS a sergeant came out of the recreation hall, took a rope into a ditch. He spoke to the people, saying 'you know what to do'.

The prisoner man then was dragged into the recreation hall and the doors closed.

Witness said he had recognized the man in the centre of the crowd as "Alphonse" and identified Kratz as "Alphonse" and identified Kratz as "Alphonse" and identified Kratz as "Alphonse".

Kratz had pulled Plank by a leg and helped to drag him to the recreation hall.

During this testimony the three prisoners sat quietly and thoughtfully, their eyes fixed on the witness.

Witness continued: "Some him (Plank) with his hands and some with him. I then went away to my quarters."

Will Care For Graves

An English woman, grateful for thoughtfulness shown by the women of Canada, wants to show her gratitude in tangible form and has offered a suggestion towards this end in a letter received by police headquarters Friday, according to Det. William McDonald, unofficial "finder of missing persons" for the department.

Mrs. Armitage of Brentford, Harrogate, Yorkshire, Eng., in a letter to the police, asked their assistance in locating an Edmonton soldier friend, and in return, offered to have his grave cared for in the H.M. regional cemetery at Stenett, England. "In return for your kindness, I should like to put fresh flowers on his grave," the H.M. region wrote.

The soldier she is seeking is Stephen Earl, son of an Edmonton woman, who was killed in action during the war. She believes his parents are in the hotel business in this district.

PROSPERITY will be increased by the introduction of such payments, and it is contended that the cost would be less than the welfare relief offered during the depression years.

Those already in receipt of an old-age income would receive the allowance, too, since no means test would be imposed, but in such cases most of the income would be returned to the government by way of income tax.

Senator Says Living Decline Canada's Need

OTTAWA, Nov. 16.—(CP)—Senator Norman McLeod (P.C.-Ontario) told the Senate yesterday there would have to be "a moderate decline in the standard of living and an improvement in the lot of the less fortunate" or "this disparity . . . will eventually lead to further trouble."

HE SAID THE "DISPARITY" in the fact that "Europe is in chaos with the lowest standard of living probably ever known . . . We have the highest standard of living in the world now."

Senator Paterson predicted there would "gradually lower our standards by taking on luxury money away from us, but strikes and work stoppages will hurry a lower standard much quicker," adding that high standards could only be sustained and improved by high production.

CANADA WAS FACED WITH the fact that a "properly organized Europe could produce many things cheaper than we could because labor costs are 95 per cent of all costs. The other cost, that for rental of money, is the only thing here that is cheaper than before the war."

He warned that if Europe did manufacture and export those goods "we dare not bar them as we must sell our surplus agricultural products. We are to lose our foreign markets for wheat our situation would be desperate."

There were "things for serious thought." This was no new era. The same ambitious selfishness, narrow views still here. He gave a "solemn warning to those leaders of labor and others that the responsibility is ours to maintain employment. . . . No one is going to get rich with present taxes."

No one can escape his share of responsibility toward maintaining industrial peace and high production. We must pay our taxes with good will and be prepared to accept a lower standard of living; or rather let us in this way, we may find it necessary to forego some luxuries which we could do without, but we should never have to go hungry or without clothing or educational facilities.

HE WAS SPEAKING ON an inquiry by Senator A. D. McNeil (P.C.-British Columbia) calling attention to the development of Canada's gold resources because of their potential contribution to general prosperity.

He said he had been informed that underground miners were not returning from the services unless they had "exhausted efforts to find work elsewhere." If that continued it may be necessary to import foreign labor to regain our position in gold production.

The Senate gave third reading to a bill to provide for a price control and price law in Canada. It now rests for Royal Assent.

THE SENATE ALSO gave second reading to a bill to incorporate the Canadian Health and Accident Insurance Corporation and sent it to committee.

Second reading was given to a bill to incorporate the Canadian conference of the Methodist Brethren Church of North America with headquarters at Winnipeg. It was sent to committee, and the Senate adjourned till Monday.

Trustees Meet

Taxation and School Financing in Canada," a research study prepared by the economist, writer, Max A. Cameron.

NEWS TREATMENT by the Calgary Albertan of an ASTA resolution dealing with trustees' administrative authority in respect to teachers, published Thursday morning, brought extended discussion resulting from prominent headlines, which the meeting agreed, were "misleading and inflammatory."

The headlines in question read: "Trustees to Fight Teachers' Contract," "Hiring Rules Termined 'Unfair'," "Teachers Expect to Put Up Stiff Opposition."

It was claimed there was nothing in the resolutions in warrant a report of this type. A resolution of condemnation of the action was finally adopted in a message to the newspaper asking that a retraction be published in the same position, and with the same prominence. The message also contained the verbatim wording of the resolution in question, and asked that it be published in full.

RESOLUTIONS PASSED at the afternoon deliberations sought immediate action to annual meetings by extension of the regulation meeting time from Oct. 31 to Dec. 31. With permission of the minister of education authority was sought by the divisional boards for the holding of annual meetings at one point. This resolution, which carried, said divisions were without a sufficiently wide policy in this respect.

Reinstatement of government policy of paying grants for school van routes on a basis of the number of miles travelled, formed the basis of another resolution which the meeting approved following observation that gasoline tax was still collected from the operation of school vans. Several other resolutions were tabled until a later session.

"WE SPEAK OF 'SPENDING' money on education, but I think it more appropriate to say 'investing in education,'" Dr. Argue remarked following a statistical outlining of a taxation system in which he used frequent quotations from the pamphlet by Cameron.

The property tax, said Dr. Argue, commenting on the interpretation by the writer, is one which can be most readily and effectively used when the question is one of immediate need for revenue.

People had a natural resistance to many forms of taxation and among them was the property tax. "YOU MAY HIDE other assets," he pointed out, "but it is difficult to hide your farm or house," said Dr. Argue. The property tax was admirably suited for local taxation.

and reform, rather than its abolition, at some stage would prefer, was what was needed.

Summarizing the quotations taken from the book to answer to a question following conclusion of his address, Dr. Argue said it recommended an equitable distribution of the whole taxation burden especially where it applied to educational purposes. These taxes at present were unequally distributed according to assessed values.

VISITING DELEGATES brought fraternal greetings from Saskatchewan and Manitoba. They were Jas. Cuddy, president, Manitoba School Teachers' Association; W. N. McGillivray, vice-president, Saskatchewan School Teachers' Association; Professor H. E. Smith, University of Alberta, brought greetings from the Alberta Teachers' Association, of which he is vice-president.

Maternity Plan Gains Attention Across Continent

CALGARY, Nov. 16.—(CP)—Free maternity hospitalization in Alberta which came into effect last year has received widespread interest both in Canada and the United States, said Dr. Malcolm R. Bowdler, provincial minister of health, Edmonton, when he spoke to the Associated Hospitals of Alberta convention Thursday morning.

Dr. Bowdler, for information on the plan had come from Washington, D.C., where similar legislation was before the United States Congress.

Dr. Bowdler expressed appreciation of the aid given by the hospitals of Alberta in putting the plan into effect. He believed the result would be a lower mortality rate before the United States Congress.

In the first year of the set 16,000 patients were admitted to 16 hospitals and 30 nursing homes at a cost of $315,000 to the department.

Vocation Training Camp Starts Work at Red Deer

RED DEER.—This week saw the first classes in the Department of Labor Training School start operation here. The school is the former A.D. Canadian Army Service Corps training center, and is known as No. 1 Canadian Vocational Training Centre. Total of 50 men make up the first group, 20 of them already being here.

Five dormitory huts will be used to house them, taking courses at the centre. Men with wives and children will be housed in one hut, couples without children in another and single men in others. The two dorm huts will be used for instruction on farm machinery, dairy and poultry machinery and agriculture, and five lecture huts will be used for class instructions.

Administration and meeting quarters are located in the former military hospital and part of this same building is being used for instruction in home economics. Seven of the men who are enrolled for the first course have their wives with them and they are taking a course in home economics under Mrs. R. Horton.

There are six instructors for the men: C. L. Boulanger, P. Gilbert, W. Langford, W. Service, H. B. Stirling and P. Wylie. A tractor instructor is expected to join the staff in a few days.

This course will run until December 22, and in January the second agricultural course will start. Later in the year advanced automotive engineering will be given at the Centre.

Althouses and shearwaters, riding the winds of the "fearful" storm, below the equator, probably fly around the world.

A miscellaneous show was held in the Botha church in honor of Mrs. Albert Wayne Davies, the former Leone Hobbs. Mrs. Davies received many useful gifts.

Elizabeth Woodward Says . . .

PITY THE CHAMP

It's wonderful . . . that guy. He can run faster than anybody else, dodge and wriggle out of a tackle and do the flashiest stunts on a football field. What's more, his curls on top . . . and his left eyebrow speaks volumes. All the girls are crazy about him. He doesn't pay much attention to them. He occasionally dates the girl who lives next door to him . . . but when he goes to dances he goes stag practically most times.

So, you reason, why shouldn't you copy TIE HERO for your very own? He's not apparently taken by any girl you know. And you might as well make a try. Never mind that he doesn't all the steps and make a play for him.

CALL HIM on the phone with a real or phony excuse about class work. He won't know who you are . . . but you can be cute and coy . . . and give him a chance next day to connect your face with your name. Ask him to go with you to the next party on your pick of escorts. He won't know where you live . . . nor why you asked him.

So, you reason, why shouldn't you copy TIE HERO for your very own? He's not apparently taken by any girl you know. And you might as well make a try. Never mind that he doesn't all the steps and make a play for him.

He'll finally notice that you're alive. But he won't be amazed. He's probably pretty shy about his football accomplishments. Lots of boys who go out heavily for sports are modest. They're used to cheering during their names shrieked by the whole school. It doesn't impress them.

So, you can be sure your small voice won't.

HEROES don't bother with girls much for the good and simple reason that they don't have time. Training and practice take up so many of their waking hours, and sleep is equally vital. Plays and tactics and tricks of the football field are more important to them than any girl's wiles. So they look stand-offish . . . and completely fascinating.

If they do break down and take a girl out it's usually a girl they've known well and can trust not to gush. Somebody who'll treat them conscientious . . . is to make a dent on the other boys. If they date you lots and you get around and are talked about as an A Number 1 gal . . . he'll hear about you. Then your phone will ring with calls from him. He'll invite you to dance with him. The football hero will pursue you. By that time maybe the star date will be out of your eyes. Maybe he'll be just one more boy to you. A boy who plays a good game. He may not attract you one speck when you get close to him. But let him narrow the distance between you . . . without any help from you!

Sonsil System For Reading Is Explained

Fundamentals of the Turnley reading system and examples of its results were shown by Francis R. Turnley, the originator of the system, to about 150 persons who attended the meeting held in the Masonic Temple Thursday night.

Mr. Turnley explained that the whole of the English language is based on 313 "sonsils". The word "sonsil" was originated by Mr. Turnley and is derived from the words "sound" and "syllables". Examples of "sonsils" are: ang, ale, and ed, these being the basis of such words as bang and hang, bale and sale, fed and led.

He said that his system teaches children not so much from sight as from sound.

An example of progress made under this system and for instructional purposes two classes of children, one of five-year-olds and other of six-year-olds, who have received from two to four months' training, demonstrated their ability to read.

Following this Mr. Turnley's six-year-old daughter, Fern, gave a demonstration of what she had learned through her father. She was able to read in her mind long sentences spelled at a fast as possible by her father. The sentences were given to the father by members of the audience.

She also answered numerous questions on geography that were asked by the audience and showed a great knowledge of music. Mr. Turnley informed the audience that his daughter was absolutely normal and not a child prodigy.

A government test class now is being tried out in a city school, in an endeavor to ascertain possibilities of the system.

Slacken Control Wholesale Goods

OTTAWA, Nov. 16.—(CP)—A further relaxation of control to permit greater freedom of access to goods to veterans and other persons establishing new businesses was announced yesterday by the Prices Board. Previously the distribution of goods in short supply had been confined largely to established concerns.

New items added to the list of commodities which suppliers may distribute freely up to 50 per cent of current supply include all food and grocery products except meat, butter, sugar, preserves, shortening, lard, edible oils, evaporated milk, ice cream and starch. However, rationing regulations remain, a board statement said.

MOST ITEMS SOLD in hardware stores also now are free from the more rigid distribution controls which have been in force since 1942. Relaxation includes paints and varnishes, cigars and cigarettes, cosmetics, rubber products, all pharmaceuticals and textiles, and most chemicals, inclusion of fabrics, piece goods and yarns in this class will permit new garment manufacturers to seek supplies from mills and wholesalers.

Also free for distribution without reference to 1941 sales are a number of other commodities including tea, coffee, agricultural machinery, metal containers, paint, waxes, pesticides, and petroleum products.

Former Mayor Honored by Civic Employees

Civic employees Thursday gave tangible recognition of the esteem in which they held former Mayor John W. Fry, and above is seen Mr. Fry receiving a gold watch and fob bearing the crest of the City of Edmonton from City Comptroller A. A. Campbell, who made the presentation on behalf of the civic employees. Mr. Fry was presented also with a bound copy of the names of more than 400 employees participating in the presentation. Mrs. Fry was presented with a bouquet of roses at the ceremony which was held in the council chamber. In the background is Mayor Harry Ainlay.

Civic Employees Pay Tribute To Former Mayor John W. Fry

In token of the high esteem in which former Mayor John W. Fry was held by civic employees, more than 300 members of civic departments gathered Thursday afternoon in the council chamber to bid him farewell and present him with a gold watch and fob bearing the coat of arms of the City of Edmonton as a tangible token of that esteem.

THE PRESENTATION was made by City Comptroller A. A. Campbell on behalf of the employees. Making the presentation referred to the extremely cordial relations which existed between civic employees and Mr. Fry during his eight years as chief magistrate of the city.

In addition to the watch and fob, Mr. Fry was presented with a bound copy of the 441 signatures of those subscribing to presentation.

C. E. Brown, president of the Federation of Civic Employees, wishing Mr. Fry and Mrs. Fry many happy years to enjoy their retirement, recalled the very harmonious relations that always existed when matters were being discussed between the city commissioners and the civic union officials. He said that working conditions for civic employees had been considerably bettered during the eight years Mr. Fry was in office.

MALCOLM AINSIE, speaking on behalf of the outside civic workers, praised Mr. Fry for the courteous manner in which he dealt with civic employees at all times. T. E. Garvie, N.C. city solicitor, said that the keynote of Mr. Fry's terms of office could properly be

Ask For Improved Service on Buses

A letter is to be sent to the Federation of Community Leagues asking that immediate action be taken toward obtaining water and a better bus service for the residents of Forest Heights. This was decided at a meeting of the Forest Heights Home and School Association held in the school hall Wednesday night.

The bus service is of special importance to youngsters of the community who have to go to the district to attend the higher school grades.

It was announced at the meeting that a new well to provide water for the school is to be drilled as soon as a favorable site is located. Chairman of the meeting was the association's president, S. G. Douglas.

described as "harmonious progression."

Thinking the employees for their expressions of esteem, Mr. Fry said that he had always endeavored to be fair with the employees and the citizens generally, and thanked them for the splendid co-operation he received from all ranks of the civic service during his 13 years in civic life.

MRS. FRY was presented with a bouquet of roses by Miss F. Beely, city assessor's office.

Conservative Wins British By-Election

LONDON, Nov. 16.—(CP)—Harold MacMillan, air minister in Winston Churchill's caretaker government and former British resident minister in the Middle East, edged out his Labor opponent in a by-election in Bournemouth. It was announced yesterday. He thus became the first of the group of Mr. Churchill's Conservatives defeated in the general election last July to return to the House of Commons. Mr. MacMillan polled 26,361 votes to 20,510 for Alexander Bain, Labor. Major J. C. Beyer, Liberal, received 4,590.

Frisco Charter Is Discussed At Rotary Meet

Education is a potent instrument for the winning of lasting peace and must be used to outlive war from the hearts and minds of mankind. Dr. Robert Newton, president of the University of Alberta, told members of the Edmonton Rotary Club when he addressed a regular luncheon meeting Thursday in the Macleod hotel.

SPEAKING IN CONNECTION with United Nations Week which is being observed by Rotary Clubs all over the world, Dr. Newton outlined the history of the United Nations charter as drawn up at San Francisco. He related how it had grown from the statement of the original Four Freedoms declared by the late President Roosevelt, which still provide the backbone of the charter, and said it is only the first step in the direction of lasting peace.

Fear must be banished from the minds of all people before any real progress can be made in other directions, he said, for mistrust, suspicion and fear among peoples and nations eventually lead to conflict.

THE ADVENT of the atomic age is one of the most important reasons for supporting the charter, he said.

This is a new Frankenstein in the back of our minds and we know we must do something about it or eventually face utter destruction. The Allies sacrificed their national sovereignty to the cause of winning the war and must be prepared to make similar sacrifices to the cause of winning a lasting peace, he declared.

HE SUGGESTED a free exchange of knowledge between the nations if there was to be mutual trust and understanding. The speaker outlined the functions of many of the organizations which were set up by the allied leaders during the progress of the war, which in reality were carried out as part of the charter's objectives.

The food and agriculture organization set up at the Hot Springs, Va., conference, deals with the long range problems of feeding the people of the world, of whom two out of three are undernourished.

"AT LEAST ONE HALF the population of the world is seriously undernourished and this is one of the underlying causes of war," he said.

He said that if the technical knowledge of man today is applied to he physical resources there will be plenty for everyone.

"The big problem facing the organization is one of distribution. They must find some way to distribute surplus without upsetting world trade," he said.

The nations have learned lessons from the old League of Nations and have tried to set up a charter which will be acceptable to all nations.

Set December 15th Adjournment For House Session

By CHESTER BLOOM

Edmonton Bulletin Ottawa Bureau OTTAWA, Nov. 16.—December 15 has been set as a goal for adjournment of the present session of parliament. It was learned this morning. The Liberal, Progressive Conservative, CCF and Social Credit leaders here, all agreed on a program to ration time of debates with a view to reaching this objective.

Whether they can hold the private members to that line, however, is questionable. One thing is certain—much of the government's proposed legislation will have to go over to the early 1946 session.

It was felt, Mr. Meuld said, that he could have erected a house, which would be superior to the pre-

Find Veterans Ignore Warning On War Credits

In spite of continued warnings, veterans are still assuming obligations involving the expenditure of their re-establishment credit before they have consulted the appropriate authorities at the Redwood building, department of veterans affairs, according to D. E. Mould, district superintendent of rehabilitation.

HE INSTANCED the case of a veteran who had recently purchased an advertised pre-fabricated house in Edmonton, and who had made a down payment on it, before taking the matter up with the department of veterans' affairs.

The returned man's home was some distance from Edmonton and after he had completed preliminary of the transaction he applied for his credit to complete the purchase.

OFFICERS of the department felt that his transaction was unwise when the cost of shipping the building to his home, the price of its erection and decoration and all other factors were considered, and refused his application.

It was felt, Mr. Mould said, that he could have erected a house, which would be superior to the prefabricated one, and which would have cost him less money.

THE DEPARTMENT has information which is available to men who wish to make purchases involving their gratuities or their re-establishment credit—information which should guide the returned man to the wisest expenditure of his money, and Mr. Mould urged veterans to use this service before becoming involved in deals which might result in a considerable loss.

At a recent meeting members were chosen to hold office for the current term, those elected were: president, Jack Shadden; secretary, Florence Plante; treasurer, Percy Stranges; social chairman, Elizabeth Maguire; bill captain, John Robinson; and cabin convenor, Bruce Edgar and Dal Lancelotti.

So far about 30 regular members have returned from overseas and are back with the club again to take part in the season's activities.

The Bulletin's SPORT SHOW

By Jack DeLong

A dream long dreamed by every hockey fan and lover of sports in Edmonton may soon become substance in early action on the oft-discussed proposal to construct a modern, central auditorium.

Edmonton's athletic-minded mayor, Harry Ainlay, is making it his policy to have the city council of plans to start work on the auditorium next spring if materials are available.

The location reported as favored by the mayor and other interested officials is near the intersection of Kingsway and 101 street. This site would eliminate for many years to come problems of traffic control and parking of cars that would plague the city if the auditorium were erected in the business area.

The main auditorium would seat at least 7,000.

EDMONTON'S HUSTLING and rapidly growing Branch No. 24 of the Canadian League, with a membership of close to 4,000, is strongly behind the proposal to start work as soon as possible on the project.

The league is likely to soon bring representations to the city council to have the matter decided. It is pointed out that many veterans are without employment here and construction of the auditorium would put many to work.

TWO QUICK GOALS by Saskatoon Elks early in the third period ruined the chance of Coach Riley Mullin's Edmonton Flyers to make a clean sweep of their recent road jaunt but the record of the team is certainly not in a pretty satisfactory kind of performance.

And the Flyers didn't come close to cracking in the last game at Saskatoon last night either.

For two periods the Edmontonians sat the pace, scoring in each of the sessions. They made it a fight all the way to the end.

The display of the Flyers on the road should be good and sufficient reason for a big crowd at the arena Saturday to watch the scheduled contest with the Capitals.

THE JAPANESE didn't hand out all the "beatings" in those grim prison camps.

Li Hsai "Duke" White, while visiting Edmonton who returned here Wednesday after 2½ years as a captive of the Japanese, similarly told us of the beatings on which the tables were turned on the Nips.

We received sports equipment from the Red Cross although we were almost too weak to move around much we organized volleyball and basketball leagues in the camp," the officer said.

"The Japs were very interested in our games and finally challenged us at volleyball. We accepted and simply beat the hell out of them. It was really satisfying, you may believe."

For some strange reason the Japanese appeared to hold no grudge although the prisoners expected some rough treatment.

CHARLES "CHUCK" HENDERSON, that tall, broad-shouldered, fast-talking baseballer, who coached the Dodgers in Edmonton's City Senior Baseball League last season, is heading back to Winnipeg soon.

"Chuck" has been working for the St. Louis Cardinals but recently he has now plans to join his wife and family in the Manitoba capital.

He played baseball, hockey, curling and bowling and said, "Chuck's only real love is baseball. He's been around and about the city. He's hopeful, however, of returning here at the end of the season."

Henderson was one of the classiest first basemen who ever performed in senior amateur and club baseball. He has been in the game for about a few years back. He was the sweetest felder ever around the plate and far from being taken the way of a baseball he talked his way out of a baseball he talked his way out.

Flyers Fade in Third Period After Twice Gaining Lead

Edmonton Loses Close Game at Saskatoon

Quick Goals Bring Elks 4-2 Victory

SASKATOON, Nov. 16.—(CP)—Saskatoon Elks ran their string of victories in the West Coast Canadian Hockey League to three games here last night as they chalked up a 4-2 decision over Edmonton Flyers before 2,000 fans.

JACK MILLER, Jimmy Freeman, Claude and Lundy were the goalgetters for the Elks while Joe Brown and Johnny Kennedy scored for the Flyers.

Elks secured their margin of victory in the third period with goals 27 seconds apart. The teams were deadlocked at 1-1 at the end of the first period and each club scored once while the other was short-handed.

The game proved fast, rugged hockey with plenty of body checking and the heaviest fighting in every period. Elks' check checking and speed were the main factors in their victory.

JOE BROWN sent Flyers into a first period lead when he shot his Almas pass and dribbled over the line. Flyers survived consecutive penalties to Doug Lane and Pug Young but gave up a goal when the lineup was off its strength.

Rebound after a scramble around the net, Kennedy hit the back of the net for the Elks' first goal. Flyers took the lead again in the second as Johnny Kennedy tipped the puck over the goal.

Devine's pass to the net, Jimmy Brennan scored the equalizer for the home club four minutes later while Young was serving a penalty.

Strachan Sensational EAC's Trim South Side 8-3

In Junior Hockey Fixture

South Side, the team that struggled along without a win for most of last year, took another lurching in the City Junior Hockey League's young season Thursday night, but their new goaltender, quick-moving Norman Strachan, stole the show of an otherwise rugged tilt played at the arena.

The Edmonton Athletic Club set crashed through for an 8-3 victory, which moved them into a second place tie with Maple Leafs as the eight goals that whizzed past the young custodian were all well earned.

STRACHAN, who was out of action most of last season, due to an injury, made truly a great return when he blocked what appeared to be sure goals time after time. He was "sharp as a needle" in kicking out 27 EAC shots and will undoubtedly after a good rest, find the strength to the South Side defence.

Jack Meldrum, just up from juvenile ranks, with two goals and one assist, made truly a great return when he blocked what appeared to be sure goals time after time. He was "sharp as a needle" in kicking out 27 EAC shots and will undoubtedly after a good rest, find the strength to the South Side defence.

Urge Northwest Development To Tap Limitless Resources

By GEORGE KITCHEN

OTTAWA, Nov. 16.—(CP)—Development of Canada's North West Territories, containing 1,000,000 square miles of virgin frontier land ripe with vast potentialities, was urged yesterday in the Commons by John R. MacNicol, Progressive Conservative member for Toronto Davenport and the most-travelled member.

MR. MACNICOL, who makes a hobby of touring the country to study the Dominion's great natural resources, told of several visits into the territories and said he could see a "very great" development of the area, rich in minerals, power, possibilities, fisheries and timber lands.

One thing that held back the country was "exorbitant" freight rates, so vital to an area which depended upon both surface and water transportation to bring in its supplies and transport its products to the outside world. If rates and transportation facilities were improved, the country would open up.

MR. MACNICOL was speaking during debate on an act to amend the Penitentiaries Act. The debate brought from some opposition members suggestions that the government implement recommendations of the 1933 report of the Archambault Commission on penal reform.

MR. ST. LAURENT said the government planned to establish a commission to investigate some of the reforms suggested by the Archambault commission.

Shortly after the sitting opened Justice Minister St. Laurent read to an intent house the Washington declaration of President Truman and Prime Ministers Ailes and Mackenzie King on proposed measures for control of atomic energy.

THE HOUSE APPLAUDED the statement. Greta Stirling (PC, Valhalla) speaking for the Progressive Conservative party, asked if the declaration would be followed by any step to be taken in the Commons.

MR. ST. LAURENT said he assumed any agreement arising from the declaration would be submitted to parliament.

MR. ST. LAURENT proposed that the extradition treaty between Canada and the United States be referred to the external affairs committee to permit public representations on its provisions but a decision was deferred until Friday when the opposition objected.

TRADE MINISTER MCKINNON disclosed that his department for several months has been studying Canada's trade position with the United Kingdom. The matter of the territories and the longest fresh water route in the world, under the act to permit their regulation.

The bill received second reading and then was given third and final reading. It now goes to the Senate.

After nearly a three-hour debate at the night session, second reading was given a bill to amend the Penitentiaries Act. The debate brought from some opposition members suggestions that the government implement recommendations of the 1933 report of the Archambault Commission on penal reform.

was of great importance and therefore could not be settled immediately. The house gave first reading to a bill to authorize an agreement to pay the City of Ottawa $300,000 annually for the next five years for water services and fire protection received by the government. The bill implements a recommendation of a Senate-Commons committee which last year studied relations between the city and the government.

He pointed out that surgical cases would not be covered in the first year of introducing the scheme. He thought the government should consider whether a compulsory basis would be laid. Unless people made some contribution they were inclined to show less respect. Lower rates of interest on loans for hospitalization and medicine were advocated.

"THERE'S NO SUCH thing as hospitalization or free thing," declared Dr. A. F. Anderson. "Don't forget the government hasn't got a dollar they haven't got from you."

He favored free medical service to old age pensioners by a government arrangement.

It is not merely enough to give advice which, though no doubt arising from philanthropic motives, is recognized to be partly inspired by political managers, who are keeping a shrewd eye cocked on the Jewish vote in the 1946 Congressional elections.

SIX MILLION Jews have been murdered in the last six years and the problem of finding a home for the two or three million European Jews who remain is one of urgent and capital importance. In particular, there is the specially pressing task of finding a home for the 112,000 Jews who are at present in Italy and the British and American zones in Germany. If the United States government really wishes to help find a home for these Jews, they must show that they are prepared to make many sacrifices themselves in the matter.

One way in which America could help would be by admitting some of these Jews to the United States. I believe that, if the United States government would offer to admit 40,000 Jews, the British government would be prepared to issue 30,000 immigration certificates into Palestine and to admit the balance of some 20,000 into Great Britain. I should be borne in mind that a considerable proportion of these unhappy people have friends and relatives in the United States and would rather go there than to Palestine.

THE SENSIBILITIES of the world have been so shocked by six years of war that it is almost impossible for people to grasp the dimensions of the hideous catastrophe that has overwhelmed European Jewry. Dr. Chaim Weizmann, the universally respected and revered leader of Zionism, showed me a letter the other day which had received from Rabbi Rosenzweig, who, like Dr. Weizmann, was born in the Jewish ghetto of Pinsk in White Russia. Thirty thousand Jews lived in Pinsk. Rabbi Rosenzweig is one of only 18 who survived the German occupation. He is now in Bologna and all he asks is a certificate permitting him to go to Palestine. Dr. Weizmann is a particularly difficult position with his followers. All through the war he has kept Zionism quiet and loyal to the United Nations cause by assuring them that in Roosevelt and Churchill they had two great friends of the Zionist cause who, like the League of Nations, were men of a square deal. Now Roosevelt is dead, Churchill is overthrown and there is no peace treaty even on the horizon.

A solution such as I have proposed would be just and fair, and would relieve England and America of the Arab imputation that we are trying to give rein to our humanitarian and philanthropic instincts entirely at the expense of the Arabs. A gesture of this kind would have far-reaching results. It would not only provide an immediate home for the 112,000 Jews, but it would immensely strengthen the moral authority of Britain and America in Arab eyes. It might induce the initiative to the Zionist cause and pave the way for the eventual establishment of a Jewish state. But speed is essential if good results are to be obtained.

Hospital Meet Studies Plans On Health Care

CALGARY, Nov. 16.—(CP)—Dominion proposals for providing health insurance to the provinces in exchange for certain taxation rights, which were discussed yesterday in a minister of health, here yesterday in a meeting at the convention of the Associated Hospitals of Alberta.

BY THE SCHEME the Dominion government would take over income tax, succession duties and corporation taxes and return to the provinces the right to administer hospitals, medical services, while details of the plan were not far enough advanced to be accepted by the province without alteration. Dr. Cross suggested it be given a try.

Discussing health insurance, Dr. A. C. McTaggart, Edmonton, said: "The greatest factor in our failure to utilize medical service is our inability to purchase them when we need them."

"In ALBERTA we have just one-half the medical doctors, dentists and nurses we require, and the number engaged solely in research is negligible. The knowledge of prevention and treatment of disease increases each year, and more could be discovered through research," he added.

Proponents of state medicine held these problems would be settled under such a scheme. The fear of costs and debt from sickness would be removed. Serious illness and disabilities would be prevented, as people would seek medical help early for the fear of expense were removed. Patient-doctor relations would improve by abolishment of the barriers of fees and collections.

DR. G. HARVEY AGNEW, Toronto, contended a great percentage of Canadians were already included in some scheme such as workmen's compensation, municipal schemes or a blue cross plan.

He pointed out that surgical cases would not be covered in the first year of introducing the scheme. He thought the government should consider whether a compulsory basis would be laid. Unless people made some contribution they were inclined to show less respect. Lower rates of interest on loans for hospitalization and medicine were advocated.

Contains Fortune Eva Braun's Treasure Found in Germany

FRANKFURT, Germany, Nov. 16.—(AP)—Eva Braun's treasure chest was found yesterday and American intelligence officers discovered beneath its hoard of jewelry and money dozens of photographs showing family pictures of her and Hitler and a mysterious baby girl called "Utschi."

Eva, who was shot with Hitler, it seems, was quite generous with Nazi loot to the woman, who is believed to have died with him in the glow of the Berlin chancellery while Berlin burned. The pictures of the baby were in a personal album.

The treasure trove contained the woman's diary, which employed ing the royal emblem of the Polish Crown and valued by American officers at between $500,000 and $1,000,000.

Exactly where the treasure was found was not disclosed.

The announcement called Eva Hitler's "supposed wife."

THERE HAD BEEN various reports that the couple had at least one child, although British intelligence investigations concluded that Hitler and Eva Braun were married only the day before they died.

The treasure trove contained the woman's diary, which employed field grey coat and the black trousers were torn to shreds, indicating they had been ripped off Hitler swiftly after the explosion. Hitler's coat bore a 1940 date. His black shoes carried the trademark of a Warsaw shoemaker.

200 Persons Die In Japanese Blast

TOKYO, Nov. 16.—(AP)—More than 200 persons were killed or injured last Monday at Murayama, Kyushu Island, when occupation troops exploding an ammunition dump accidentally touched off the explosives. More than 30 houses were destroyed and 160 others damaged in the blast, which also injured 80-odd residents of the area.

Some authorities believe that the ruins near Guagui, Bolivia ante-date the pyramids of Egypt.

Certain Amount of Rationing To Remain for Sometime Yet

"Although some commodities have been distributed in an interview, the fact is that we are still waiting for a certain amount of rationing, particularly in the case of flour, sugar, and other necessities," said Mrs. J. H. Sanders, director of the Edmonton branch of the Canadian Women's Press club, in an interview with the Edmonton Bulletin Thursday at the MacDonald hotel.

Bringing news of the doubling of production of children's underwear, the appearance of evening gowns in city shops, the opening of the lifting of restrictions on the sale of women's hats, and before starting a buying spree.

REGARDING the appearance of household goods that are not being made more available, Mrs. Sanders said that she had seen a dress made would cost her buying to the point where she had to purchase articles with which to establish new homes.

Mrs. Sanders expressed pride in Canadian women who have both actively and indirectly contributed to the war effort.

Women and Children Take Place in Ford Strike Picket Line as Settlement Talks Proceed

GEN. CRERAR IS HONORED—Commander of the first Canadian army, Gen. H. D. G. Crerar signs the guest book at the city hall in Toronto, Ont., where he was given a civic reception. Mayor Saunders looks on. Later the distinguished soldier was received in the city council chamber. Gen. Crerar was accompanied by his wife on his three-day visit.

REDEPLOYMENT FOR THE "ONE MAN ARMY"—Maj. Arthur Wermuth, "One Man Army of Bataan" who is credited with killing 116 Japs, gets a big hug from his wife, Jean, as he arrives at Chicago airport. A prisoner of the Japs for more than three years, he had not seen his wife since 1941.

STRIKE BRINGS OUT HORSEY SET—When strike of streetcar and bus operators in Washington left 500,000 persons without public transportation, A. L. Wade showed unusual enterprise by riding his horse to work. Unhindered transportation walkout started when members of Local 656 of Amalgamated Association of Street Electric Railway and Motor Coach Employees (AFL) voted to stay in continuous meeting until Capital Transit Co. acted on their demand for a 30-cent increase in hourly pay.

Tiny picketer at the Ford plant in Windsor, Ont., is Ernie Tivara, three, whose father is a striker.

With big horn is Virginia Uhleny, member of Local 195, who is helping the strikers' band supply constant music for the pickets in their long vigil.

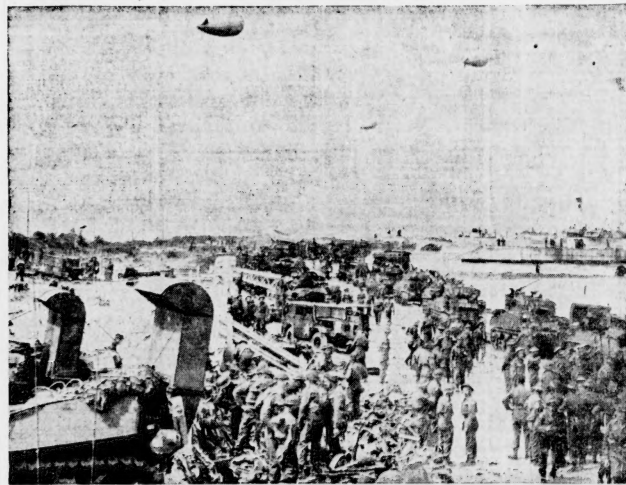

In the line is Mrs. Martin Cojocar who helps swell the number of picketers while government, management and labor officials talk possible settlement.

Beating out a boogie beat for the picket patrol is Pearl Netsch of the strikers' band.

Normandy Beaches

Canadian soldiers will never forget those scenes on the Normandy beaches in early June, 1944, when thousands of fighting men and masses of equipment poured ashore to strengthen and enlarge the beachhead. Sequences of the film "The True Glory" pay tribute to the work of those men who helped to make the initial attacks successful. The above photo shows convoy balloons floating over a Canadian section of the beach as still waterproofed Crusader and Sherman tanks move inland to bolster the attacking infantry.

All in Day's Work

The rubble-filled streets of Caen or the sandy, water-filled foxholes of Holland were all in a day's work to advancing Canadian infantrymen, and are all shown in the army film "The True Glory" which presents the story of the European war from D-Day to VE-Day. They present different problems but the Canucks tackled them cheerfully, intent only upon the destruction of the German enemy. Left above, a Canadian patrol picks its way carefully through the ruins of Caen searching out German snipers. At right, a Canadian section armed with flat and mortar waits the signal to attack across the Dutch border into Germany.

SHE HAS HORSE HOBBY—Fannie Brason's love of horses was unshaken when she was thrown while riding and badly crippled several years ago. So she began making life-like miniatures like those she displays above at her Agate Beach, Ore., home. Bodies are carved from balsa wood and plastic, then covered with calfskin and equipped with saddles, bridles and other trappings she makes by hand.
